PDC Homepage to Feature 2002 Election

Candidates registered with the Public Disclosure Commission for the 2002 election can be found with ease under the new 2002 Election area on the PDC homepage.

The new 2002 election webpage section features who's running for office and is dynamically updated as new candidates register. Legislative candidates running in 2002 can be accessed by office sought and by legislative district. All other candidates registered with the PDC can be found by election year, office sought and jurisdiction.

This new 2002 Election section will soon have additional reports such as the contribution and expenditure totals for statewide initiatives and referenda, State Supreme Court campaigns, the top 50 contributors to Legislative Campaigns, general election independent expenditures and other reports specific to the 2002 election.

For more information regarding the 2002 election section or the PDC go to www.pdc.wa.gov and look under 2002 Election.
